Our lawful bases for using your personal data

This section contains information about the lawful basis that we are relying on when handling your personal data.

Legitimate interests

This means that we are using your personal data when this is necessary for our legitimate interests, except when your interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests. We rely on legitimate interests to use your personal data for all of the purposes described in this document except where we have asked you for your consent (in which case consent applies as the lawful basis). Specifically, we have a legitimate interest in:

- ensuring that there is an active community of supporters which will benefit the School and members of the School community, such as current and former pupils, staff and parents;
- promoting the objects and interests of the School. This includes fundraising, e.g. if we want to raise money for the bursary fund or new buildings;
- using your personal data to administer our events;
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our current and former pupils with whom you may be in contact, e.g. if you arrange work experience, or mentor a former pupil, or reading with current pupils; and
- ensuring that we comply with our legal obligations.

If you object to us using your personal data where we are relying on our legitimate interests as explained above, please speak to the Head of Marketing, Admissions & Development

Public task

We rely on this basis (as well as legitimate interests) where we use personal data in order to look after those we are responsible for. For example, if we needed to carry out checks on someone before allowing them to read with our pupils.

Consent

In some cases, we are processing your personal data because you have given us your consent to do so. For example, to receive fundraising email communications from us.

If we ask for your consent to use your personal data, you can take back this consent at any time. Any use of your personal data before you withdraw your consent remains valid. To withdraw your consent please contact the Head of Marketing, Admissions & Development on:

- 020 7435 1568 / 020 7435 1868
- Development & Alumni Relations Office, St Marys School, Hampstead, 47 Fitzjohn's Avenue, London NW3 6PG

Necessary for a contract

We will need to use your personal data in order to perform our obligations under a contract with you, for example, we need your name and contact details so that we can send you tickets for a concert that you have purchased tickets for.

Legal obligation

On some occasions we will need your personal data to comply with a legal obligation. For example, we may need to keep a record of who is attending an event so that we can comply with our health and safety obligations.

Vital interests

For example, to prevent someone from being seriously harmed or killed.

Updating your consent preferences

If you have an online profile on our Alumni website, you can update your consent options by logging-in and clicking on “My Settings” in your profile. Scroll down to find your ‘Consent options’ where you will see a list of consents and the options “opt-in”, “opt-out” and “unspecified”.

Via ‘My Settings’ you can also choose to hide your profile from Google, limit access to your profile so that it’s only viewable to your connections and adjust some of the automatic notifications that you receive from this website. Please note that your name (but not full profile) may appear in various places around the community website, such as a ‘Recent Joiners’ box and in ‘Search’ results irrespective of the privacy settings you have selected.

If we are using consent as our legal basis for processing your data, we must have an explicit “opt-in” from you for this specific type of processing.

If we are using legitimate interests as our legal basis for processing your data, we will process your data responsibly in a way that you would reasonably expect, and you can opt-out at any stage.

If you click ‘unsubscribe’ at the bottom of one of our emails sent you will be automatically opted-out of these types of email communications in the future.

If you do not have an online profile and/or want to contact us about your consent preferences, please contact the Head of Marketing, Admissions & Development:

- Thomas.Wood@stmh.co.uk / Alumni@stmh.co.uk
- 020 7435 1568 / 020 7435 1868
- Development & Alumni Relations Office, St Marys School, Hampstead, 47 Fitzjohn’s Avenue, London NW3 6PG

How we keep your information safe

We understand the importance of keeping your personal information secure and take appropriate steps to safeguard it.

Your data is stored on a dedicated, secure cloud server hosted by Amazon Web Services (AWS) in the EU and managed by our Alumni website provider, ToucanTech. Industry standard firewalls, anti-virus, encryption and back-up methods are in place, as well as strict data handling protocols.

We always ensure only authorised persons have access to your information, which means only our approved employees and contractors, and that everyone who has access is appropriately trained in data management.

If you have an online profile for the Alumni website, you are responsible for keeping your login details (email and password) confidential and we ask that you do not share your password with anyone.

No data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be completely secure. So, whilst we strive to safeguard your information, we cannot guarantee the security of any information you provide online and you do this at your own risk.

Sending your personal data to other countries

When the School sends personal data outside of the UK, we have to consider if the other country has the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK. Some countries are considered by the UK Government to have adequate rules and this includes all of the European Union and some other countries, such as, New Zealand, Norway, Switzerland and Argentina.

The School sends your personal data to countries with adequate rules if we were to use an event booking platform which stores your personal data on servers in Ireland.

In certain circumstances, we may send your personal data to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK. For example, depending on the software company used, we may store your personal data on cloud computer storage servers based in, for example, the USA. In this situation, we would ensure that safeguards are in place and further information about this would be available if required outside of this privacy notice.

If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Head of Marketing, Admissions & Development or Bursar.

For how long do we keep your personal data?

We have an ongoing relationship with you, and we would like you to be involved with the School for many years to come. For this reason, the Development & Alumni Relations Office keeps the majority of the personal data it holds about you indefinitely. For example, we keep your contact details so that we can continue to stay in touch with you. Similarly, we will retain information about your involvement with the School as this helps us tailor our communications to you both now and in future.

If you ask us to stop contacting you, we will keep a record of your contact details and limited information needed to ensure we comply with your request. If you ask us to remove your personal data from our database, we will delete all the information we hold out apart from your name and the dates that you attended the School and will archive your record in our database.

Where we rely on your consent to contact you for direct email marketing/ fundraising purposes, we will treat your consent as lasting only for as long as it is reasonable to do so. This will usually be for two years. We may periodically ask you to renew your consent.

We also keep some information indefinitely for archiving purposes (this is known as "archiving in the public interest" under data protection law) and for historical research purposes. This includes the School's legitimate interests in research; supporting long-term accountability; enabling the discovery and availability of the School's and the wider school community's identity, memory, culture and history; enabling the establishment and maintenance of rights and obligations and of precedent decisions; educational purposes; and commercial and non-commercial re-use. For example, we keep some old photos so that we have a record of what the School was like in the past. Information held in our archive may be made publicly available, but this would only be done in compliance with data protection laws.

The School will also keep information for a long time as part of its wider legal and regulatory obligations, even if that information is no longer needed for marketing, development or fundraising purposes. This is especially relevant to former staff, pupils and parents. For more information on how personal data is used by the School more widely please contact the Bursar.

Although the Development & Alumni Relations Office keeps the majority of your personal data for a very long time, there are some exceptions to this. Further information can be found in our Information and Records Retention Policy.

- Correction: if information held about you by the School is incorrect or incomplete you can ask us to correct it.
